

B G K M A Profile

BULGARIAN KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION is established on February 21 2009 in Sofia as a nongovernmental organization and intends to:

1. Protect and support the professional development and improves qualification of its members in the area of knowledge management;
2. Cooperate with Bulgarian specialists to acquire prestige amongst the knowledge management;
3. Help incorporate the principles of knowledge management in Bulgarian companies, education institutions and other organisations;
4. Improve quality and efficiency of knowledge management in Bulgarian organizations;
5. Perfect means of raising standards in learning throughout the whole life;

BGKMA encourages free exchange of knowledge, idea and information exchange in order to ensure the sustainable development of Bulgaria's society and institutions applying knowledge management. BGKMA supports the development of education institutions, personal realization, conserving knowledge and intellectual capacity in the organisations and civic society.

BULGARIAN KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION:

1. Develops and realises programmes and projects in relation to achieving its goals.
2. Takes stands on regulation acts concerning knowledge management and long life education;
3. Organizes seminars, symposiums, conferences and meetings meant to present its members to the highest achievements in the area of knowledge management.
4. Represent its members and establish contact with other similar local or foreign organisations.
5. Provides its members consultation about knowledge management systems for their individual qualification development or economic activity.
6. Provides informational services to its members such as a company website, information bulletins, brochures and other materials.
7. Realises contacts between its members and supports their international relations in order to incorporate knowledge management.
8. Organises and holds joint initiatives with the authorities and non-governmental organisations in order to popularise knowledge management and education throughout the whole life.

A member of Bulgarian Knowledge Management Association can be every juridical person, corporate body or physical person of age who share the ideals of the association.

BGKMA is managed by Management Board consisting of three persons, chosen for the term of three years. President of the Management Board is Dimitar Stoyanov.

Contacts:

Sofia 1404

BULGARIAN KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION

Dimitar Stoyanov,

+359 884 902 195

www.bgkma.com

office@bgkma.com